Deane Sequiera debuts Bollywood

Deane Sequiera has been a writer, composer and singer since the age of 14. She is considered as the youngest female rapper of our nation.

Speaking to Sound Box she said, “Something pulled me towards rapping rather than any other genre of singing, I hardly sing any other genre. I am a huge fan of Nikki Minaj and Eminem and they both are my inspiration.”

She rapped the song Bezubaan from ABCD (Any Body Can Dance) of which Mohit Chauhan is a co singer. She came to fame by her first single Random and IPL song Chakka Laga with Hungama AAPL. (Artist Aloud Premier League)

The teen watched VH1 instead of the cartoons at her school days. She was always fond of rapping. Her first release was Random which was a hit worldwide.

Random was an RnB plus Rap combination. She came on stage with a concert when she was just 14 years old during her SSC exam. She said that the concert was scheduled pretty earlier and the dates came in the exam schedule. Though she had given the commitment she performed at Sea ground, Bandra as a webcert at Hungama Artist Aloud live concert and went for the exam next day. Deane Sequeira is the first youngest Indian female artiste at 15 yrs to feature and be listed and receive a 97.3% (DHS) dynamic hit score rating from Mega star AKON/Hitlab.com

Talking about her future plans she said, “We are looking forward to collaborate with the western artists and working on the more two songs whose label is not yet finalised.”

Deane has sung with 50 musicians namely Neha Bhasin, Shibani Kashyap, Ravi Iyer and Neha Kakkar, Sanjay Maroo etc. where she felt overwhelming and grand as she got a huge opportunity. Presently she's 16 years of age, studying St. Andrews College. She is famous in her college as a rapper but it's strange that she has performed only twice on the campus of her school and college.
